PREFACE

THE genesis of the Bohemian Club of San Francisco, dates from the meeting of a few journalists in the editorial rooms of a San Francisco newspaper, February 15th, 1872, when it was resolved to organize a club for journalists and other writers, and a committee was appointed to draft a Constitution. This Constitution was adopted March 4th, 1872, and went into effect on the 30th of the same month, which date was also set for electing a Board of Officers. By March 9th, twenty names of charter members were subscribed to the Constitution, and after some debate as to the Club name, The Bohemian Club of San Francisco was formally organized April 1st, and incorporated May 17th, 1872. Even prior to these dates the original purpose of the organizers had broadened until its circularized expression was almost identical with Article I of the present Constitution which reads, "this organization is instituted for the association of gentlemen connected professionally with literature, art, music, the drama, and also those who, by reason of their love or appreciation of these objects, may be deemed eligible."

Since its organization the Club has moved its rooms twice. The first club rooms were in the

Digitized by Google

"Astor" building, S. E. corner of Sacramento and Webb streets, which were occupied March 25th, 1872. Five years later the Club leased more spacious quarters at 430 Pine street, and February 23d, 1889, the present Club Building, 130 Post street, was occupied.

The membership has grown from 182 regular members in 1874 to 750 regular members in 1904, and a waiting list of 170 names. The active membership also includes a large army and navy list, 22 members of the faculties of the University of California and Leland Stanford Jr. University, 23 honorary, and 27 life members.

The Bohemian Club's devotion to the Liberal Arts has found most noteworthy expression through its "High Jinks." These literary, musical, and, to some extent, dramatic entertainments, were originally held on the last Saturday of each month, but have come to be celebrated on dates set by the High Jinks Committee.

While its Club House administers to the creature comforts of the members; the æsthetic and social cravings of the Bohemian are satisfied, when on the occasions of the Club's famous High Jinks and during the great annual Midsummer Jinks outing in the redwoods, with its attendant ceremonial, he proves that talent is the only wealth.

Bohemia also has a gayer side which finds expression in many a Low Jinks and is imperatively stated in the Club's motto:

"Weaving spiders come not here."

Such suspension shall continue for ten months unless said indebtedness be sooner paid in full; and, if not paid at the end of said ten months, the name of the delinquent shall be stricken from the roll of members. During such suspension the delinquent shall be liable for monthly dues, unless the same be remitted by the Board of Directors.

Any member who may conduct himself in a manner unbefitting a gentleman, either in the Club or elsewhere, shall be expelled; provided proper steps be taken to that end in accordance with the By-Laws. A member conducting himself in any way calculated to disturb the harmony or impair the good name or prosperity of the Club, may be reprimanded, suspended or expelled.

SEC. 2. Any member who may charge another with conduct unbefitting a gentleman, or conduct calculated to disturb the harmony or impair the good name or prosperity of the Club, shall prefer such charge in writing to the Board of Directors; and if there shall be probable cause for such charge, a special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be convened to consider the same, of which the accused shall have due notice. At such meeting, or any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors may take such action, under the By-Laws, as it may deem just; but a unanimous vote of its members shall be necessary for expulsion. A member so expelled may appeal to a general meeting of the Club, which must be called on his request, but a vote of two-thirds of the members present at such meeting shall be necessary for a reversal of the action of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XXIII.

Club Meetings.

SECTION 1. The regular annual meeting of the Club shall be held on the second Tuesday of April in each year, at one o'clock P. M., and regular quarterly meetings of the Club shall be held on the second Tuesdays of July, October, and January in each year at one o'clock P. M.

SEC. 2. Special meetings of the Club may be called by the Directors on their own motion, and must be called on the application in writing of ten members.

SEC. 3. Notice of all meetings of the Club, both regular and special, shall be given by mailing, at least ten days before said meeting, to each member of the Club, as provided in Article XXXI of these By-Laws, a notice of said meeting, and, in addition, notice of the regular annual meeting shall be published for at least two weeks before said meeting in some newspaper published in the City and County of San Francisco, and all other notices of said meetings, special or regular, are hereby dispensed with. The notice of special meeting shall state the purposes for which the meeting is called.

SEC. 4. Thirty members shall constitute a quorum for a regular or special meeting, and an election of officers of the Club at a meeting where thirty members are present shall be as valid as if made at an election at which a majority of the members of the Club were present and voted.

SEC. 5. In any action requiring the sanction of two-thirds of the entire membership of the Club, members can vote by proxy at a meeting called to consider such action, but no proxies shall be allowed for any other purpose. Proxies can be given only to a member, and must be filed with the Secretary before any meeting at which they are to be used.

ARTICLE XXIV.

Annual Election.

SECTION 1. The annual election of all officers of the Club shall be held at the regular annual meeting. At the annual election the vote shall be by ballot, and the polls shall be kept open for one hour. The officer presiding at said meeting shall appoint two Judges of Election to supervise the same. The said Judges of Election shall receive and count the votes and report to the presiding officer, in writing, the names of the officers elected and the number of votes cast for each candidate, and the presiding officer shall declare the result. A plurality of votes shall elect. In case of a tie, another ballot shall be taken at once at said meeting on the tying candidates.

SEC. 2. No member shall be eligible to any elective office or be allowed to vote who, at the time, be in arrears for dues or other indebtedness.

SEC. 3. The officers elect shall assume their duties on the day following their election.

ARTICLE XXV.

Nominating Committee.

SECTION 1. This Club, at the last quarterly meeting prior to the annual election, or at a meeting of the Club, called for the purpose prior to said time, shall elect from the body of its members a Committee of five, who shall prepare and submit a list of Officers and Directors to be voted for at the next ensuing Club election. The Committee shall be chosen in the following manner: Nominations shall be made separately, and, when seconded, shall be recorded by the Secretary. When no further nominations are offered, the presiding officer shall declare the same closed. The Secretary shall then read the names of all nominees as recorded, and the Club shall proceed to ballot for the same, each member voting for five nominees. When the voting is completed, the presiding officer shall appoint three Tellers, who shall count the ballots and report the result to the presiding officer, and the five nominees receiving the highest number of votes shall be by him declared to be the Committee. The ticket submitted by the Committee shall be known as the Regular Ticket, and shall be posted on the bulletin board in the Club House by the Chairman of the Committee as soon as completed, but not later than two weeks before the annual election, and shall be printed and circulated among the members at the expense of the Club. If the ticket be not posted as above required, it shall not be called the Regular Ticket. Nothing herein contained shall preclude the nomination of other tickets by any member or members of the Club. All ballots shall be uniform in size and color.

ARTICLE XXVI.

Limiting Club Indebtedness.

SECTION 1. Subject to the laws of this State, the Board of Directors of this Club may incur an indebtedness to the amount of One Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($125,000.00) and interest, for the purpose of purchasing a Club site, and may secure the payment of the same, with interest, in any lawful way upon the property so purchased, or contracted to be purchased.

SEC. 2. The annual expenditure for Midsummer Jinks, High Jinks, Low Jinks, and Bohemian Club Grove shall not exceed Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00).

SEC. 3. All extraordinary expenditures, other than those above provided, involving an outlay of more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), shall be first submitted to the Club for its approval; but this restriction shall not apply to expenditures for the regular conduct and operation of the Club.

ARTICLE XXVII.

Visitor's Card.

SECTION 1. At the request of a member, non-residents of the City of San Francisco, residing more than fifty miles therefrom, may be admitted to the privileges of the Club for a period of two weeks, two members of the Board of Directors consenting. A card shall be issued to each visitor, signed by the President and Secretary. Members introducing visitors shall be held responsible for any indebtedness such visitors may contract. The time of Visitor's Cards may be extended by the Board of Directors, in their discretion, for a term not to exceed two weeks, and to non-residents eminent in literature, art, music, or science, indefinitely. A card shall not be issued to the same person twice within the same year.

SEC. 2. The holder of a Visitor's Card, provided he be a resident of the State of California, shall not be entitled to the privileges of the Midsummer Camp or Jinks.

ARTICLE XXVIII.

High Jinks.

SECTION 1. "High Jinks" may be held on or about the last Saturday evening of each month, under the direction of a member to be designated for that purpose by the appropriate Standing Committee of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XXIX.

No Compensation to Members.

SECTION 1. No member shall, on any pretext, or in any manner, receive salary or compensation for services from the funds of the Club.

Said notices shall be held to have been received five days after being so mailed.

The recital in the minutes of any meeting that notice has been mailed in accordance with the By-Laws shall be conclusive evidence that due notice has been given and received.

ARTICLE XXXII.

Construing By-Laws.

SECTION 1. On all questions arising as to the construction of these By-Laws, the decision of the Board of Directors shall be final, unless rescinded by the Club at the next general meeting.

ARTICLE XXXIII.

HOUSE RULES

(1.) The Club-rooms will be opened at 7 A. M. daily. No members except those occupying bedrooms in the Club will be admitted after 1 A. M. Members who may be in the rooms at that hour are not to be influenced as to their departure by this rule.

(2.) The office of the Club will be open from 8 A. M. to 8:30 P. M. on business days, and from 11 A. M. to 2 P. M. on Sundays and holidays.

(3.) No servant will be sent from the Club on the private business of any member. Feeing of servants is prohibited. This applies to the entire Club and all its employees. No reprimand will be given servants by members of the Club. Any inattention to duty or lack of courtesy must be reported at the office of the Club, associated with a request that the same be brought before the notice of the committee in charge.

(4.) Complaints other than those referred to in the preceding rule should be made in writing to the Board of Directors.

(5.) Members will be limited to three visitor's cards at one time.

Applications for visitor's cards must be made in writing, and will not be registered if sent by telephone.

No visitor's card will be issued to any resident of San Francisco, or to any one residing within 50 miles thereof. No more than two visitor's cards will be issued to one person within twelve months. When the credit of a member is stopped he is disqualified as a sponsor for visitor's cards. Visitor's bank checks will not be cashed.

Gentlemen holding visitor's cards are permitted to entertain in the Club only members and those entitled to the privileges of membership.

(6.) Members of Clubs entitled to reciprocal relations with the Bohemian Club, may enjoy the privileges of the Club for a period of three months from the date of the presentation of their credentials. After that time an extension of the courtesy may be obtained only by application to the Board of Directors of the Bohemian Club, and the limit of such extension will be three months.

A member of a corresponding Club must present credentials signed by the Secretary of the Club of which he is a member, or be introduced by a member of the Bohemian Club.

(7.) Gentlemen who are not members, and have not the privileges of membership, will be excluded from all parts of the Club other than the reception room except while escorted by a member. Residents of San Francisco, or of places within 50 miles thereof, may not be invited to the privileges of the Restaurant Department oftener than once in 60 days, except by permission of the Directory. These gentlemen may be entertained by members in the Green Room of the Club, but the same person must not be entertained oftener than once a month.

Use of the Reception Room, or any other of the Club-rooms, for transaction of private business is prohibited.

(8.) No member of the Club is permitted to entertain in the Club at the same time more than three persons who are not members, or have not the privileges of membership, except at meals served in a private dining-room.

(9.) Members may have the use of the private dining rooms in the evening for the entertainment of guests, including ladies, provided twelve hours notice be given the Secretary, and no dinner will be served for less than four persons. The Red Room is available only on Wednesday evenings as a private dining room for the entertainment of ladies, except on application to and with the approval of the President, the Chairman of the Dining Room Committee, and the Chairman of the Rooms Committee. The dinner party must be not less than ten. On such occasions, excepting the Jinks Room, and that set apart for cloak room, ladies will not be permitted in other rooms than those in which the entertainment is given.

The cloak room will be selected from rooms at that time vacant, to be charged for at usual rates.

Members can have the use of the private dining rooms for the entertainment of ladies at luncheon when approved by the Board of Directors after application shall have been made to the said Board stating the nature of the entertainment and the number of ladies and gentlemen to be invited, provided in the opinion of the Board, the guest of honor is distinguished in the Arts, Letters or Science. Invitations to such dinners or luncheons can only be issued by members.

(10.) When personally conducted by a member, ladies may visit the Club Rooms between 2 and 5 o'clock P. M. only on the first Wednesday of the month.

(11.) No member may invite to a Jinks, or to dinner at the Club on the evening of a Jinks, any person not a member, or not having the privileges of membership, unless such person holds an invitation from the Sire to attend the Jinks. A member coming to the Club with a visitor on the evening of a Jinks will be penalized should such visitor not be entitled to be present as above provided.

(11*a*.) The Sire of any Jinks shall be entitled to five cards of invitation, and no more shall be issued without approval of Board of Directors. An invitation to the Midsummer Jinks may include the full privileges of the camp.

(12.) Every card issued to the Card Games by the Wine Room must be returned signed. The Card Room game will be held responsible for such cards, and they must agree with the Wine Room account, which will be considered conclusive.

(13.) Playing of cards and other games will be permitted only in the rooms set apart for such purpose. The Directory will exercise its power to suppress any and all games which, in its opinion, may be calculated to bring the Club into disrepute or to interrupt its harmony.

Only members and gentlemen holding visitor's cards can play cards in the Club.

(14.) None but members, or persons having the privileges of membership, are permitted to pay for refreshments.

(14*a*.) Members' orders for wine room supplies to be delivered outside the Club cannot be taken over the telephone, but must be in the form of a written order.

(15.) Except by previous arrangement with the management, no meals will be served in any room other than that set apart for the purpose, and all food served must be purchased from the Club or procured from the Wine Room sideboard. Food served from the sideboard will not be considered a meal.

(15*a*.) No food will be served in the Green Room, nor will food or drink be served in the Library.

(16.) Conversation in the Library is not permitted.

(17.) No books, papers or periodicals will be taken from the rooms where they are placed, except that San Francisco daily papers may be used in any room on the first floor of the Club, or in the Library. Mutilation of books, papers or periodicals, is prohibited.

(18.) Minors are permitted only in the reception room, and then only when accompanied by members.

(19.) Dogs are not permitted in the Club-rooms.

(20.) Members will be charged for property of the Club destroyed or damaged by them, as the Board of Directors may order.

(21.) No transfer nor subletting of bed-rooms is permitted. Only members can occupy the bed-rooms of the Club except by permission of the Board of Directors. Card playing is prohibited in the bed-rooms. The Club is not responsible for property left in the bed-rooms. Club bed-rooms can only be occupied by one person.

(21*a*.) The sleeping apartments in the Club (with the exception of those which are reserved as transient rooms) are intended for the use and accommodation of members who make such rooms their homes and cannot be held or rented by any member not making actual use of his room for a longer period than thirty days, without special permission of the Board of Directors.

(22.) No subscription list, circular or notice may be circulated or posted in the Club without the permission of the Board of Directors or the appropriate committee thereof.

(23.) No information of proceedings of the Club may be supplied for publication to any newspaper or magazine, except by authority of the Board of Directors. The proceedings of the meetings of the Board of Directors are held to be strictly private.

(24.) If a member who is posted for non-payment of any indebtedness continues to sign cards after such posting, a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) will be imposed for each card, that is not taken up by said member on the day on which it is signed; and such fine shall be considered as an indebtedness other than for dues.

(25.) Whenever the indebtedness of a member to the Club amounts to one hundred dollars, his further credit and supplies may be stopped, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, until the indebtedness is paid.

(26.) Members not posted can have their checks cashed for an amount not exceeding twenty-five dollars in one day, but only when presented in person by the drawer or endorser of the check.

(27.) No property of the Club shall be removed from the Club-rooms, under any circumstances, without formal permission of the Board of Directors.

(28.) The Barber Shop will be open as follows: Mondays from 8:00 A. M. to 10:15 A. M., 11:00 A. M. to 3:00 P. M., 3:45 P. M. to 7:30 P. M. Other week days from 8 A. M. to 7.30 P. M. Sundays and holidays from 8:30 A. M. to 2:00 P. M., and as much later as the services of the barbers are demanded by the members waiting in the Club-rooms.

(28*a*.) On week days, between the hours of 12:00 and 1:00 P. M. and on Sundays and holidays after 12:00 M., there will be no hair cutting or trimming of beard. The names of members desiring the services of the barber will be placed upon the slate in order of application. If a member, notified that the barber is ready to wait upon him, fails to avail himself of the opportunity, his name will be dropped from the slate for the time being.

(29.) Pipe smoking not allowed, except in bed-rooms.

(30.) For the violation of any of these rules, a fine may be imposed by the Directory.

GROVE CLUB HOUSE RULES.

(1.) All rules in existence or made in the future by the Directors for the guidance of members in the main Club House are to be considered in force in the Grove Club House, unless they conflict with those special rules which follow, in which case the special rules are to govern.

(2.) The Grove Club House will be open for the reception of members and their friends and for gentlemen holding visitors' cards or Sire's invitations at all seasons of the year, but during the time of the Mid-Summer encampment, the Club House will be open only between the hours of 7:00 A. M. and 6:30 P. M. No gentleman, not a member of the Club, unless holding a visitor's card, may be included in a house party.

(3.) Servants of parties must leave the house in good order and clean. This pertains also to the sleeping houses. The cost of laundering bed clothes, table linen, etc., will be charged to the party occupying the house.

(4.) No party shall have the right to occupy the premises more than one week, if another party makes application for its use.

(5.) No donations will be accepted for the house without the permission of a majority of the Grove Committee.

(6.) Ladies, accompanied by members, may visit the Club House, as well as the Grove, when the house is not occupied by a party. At such times they may visit the Grove but not the House. Ladies may be entertained at luncheon by the members at the house but at no other time, and not at all during the Mid-Summer encampment.

(7.) Written notice of intention to occupy the house must be left at the Club's office in time to enable the officers to communicate with the Grove people.

(8.) Parties visiting Club House must provide their own supplies, help and transportation.

CAMP RULES AND REGULATIONS.

During the Midsummer Jinks Encampment, the Captain of the Camp shall have full charge of everything.

He shall have the appointment of lieutenants and such employees as may be deemed necessary.

Members desiring locations for private tents should apply for them as early as possible. Once erected, no tent will be removed.

Members desiring platforms should order them at least ten days prior to the day of the Jinks. Such platforms must be portable, as they will be removed from the grounds and stored immediately after the Jinks.

No more platforms or structures of a semi-permanent character will be allowed on the hill sides or in other conspicuous localities; the intention being to avoid marring the natural beauties of the forest, as much as possible, and to give the "most pleasure to the greatest number."

No private tent which is received at the camp later than noon on Thursday preceding the day of the Jinks will be erected by the Club help.

Orders for tents and furniture must be in writing and signed. Verbal or telephone orders can not be accepted. Order blanks will be mailed to members upon application.

Members must not move nor exchange any piece of Club furniture from any tent, without the consent of the Captain of the Camp.

Members (or their valets or private servants) must not remove or take away any chairs, cots, mattresses, lanterns, lumber, brush, or any Club property intended for general use or for the Sires.

No special service of food to tents will be allowed, except in case of sickness, or after ample notice and special arrangement with the Steward, and by paying service charge.

Members leaving Camp must give notice by entering departure on the register; otherwise the regular charge will run against their account.

The Club will not be responsible for valuables left in the tents.

Members are requested not to tip any of the employees.
